To Ride With Us!

CMT/ABATE TENNESSEE

CMT/ABATE, Inc. was formed in 1992 to preserve freedom and promote safety and awareness for all Tennesseans who enjoy motorcycling. We are a political organization, incorporated as a 501(c) 4, not a "club". Our major goals are to modify existing laws that are detrimental to motorcycle safety and enjoyment, and to enact new legislation in support of all motorcyclists who ride in Tennessee. If you are concerned about preserving personal freedom and motorcycle safety, please join us.

Editor's NOTE

LISA OGLE

Summer is finally here, and Tennessee roads are calling. With the sun high and the days long, there's no better time to embrace the thrill of riding. But as we transition into the heat of the season, safety remains just as crucial—perhaps even more so.

Riding in summer brings different challenges than spring. The pavement is warmer, meaning tires grip differently, and heat can take a toll on both machines and riders alike. Hydration is key—dehydration sneaks up quickly, leading to fatigue and slower reaction times. Make water your best friend, and take breaks when needed.

Traffic is another factor. With vacationers, cyclists, and pedestrians filling the roads, extra vigilance is required. Expect unexpected lane shifts, distracted drivers, and congestion in scenic areas. Maintaining awareness and defensive riding practices is essential.

Then there's the gear. Summer riding means balancing protection with breathability. Mesh jackets, moisture-wicking layers, and well-ventilated helmets keep us safe without sacrificing comfort. Riding without proper gear may feel tempting in the heat, but remember—ATGATT (All the Gear, All the Time) isn't just a motto; it's a safeguard.

One sneaky hazard of summer riding is road snakes—those glossy tar strips filling cracks in the pavement. While they help prevent further road damage, they become dangerously slick under intense heat, especially when leaned over in a curve. Watch for them, adjust your line, and stay smooth on the throttle and handlebars to avoid slipping.

Before each ride, give your motorcycle a quick check. The summer sun can be unforgiving—fluids evaporate faster, batteries drain more quickly, and tire pressure fluctuates with temperature changes. A few minutes of inspection can prevent hours of trouble.

Let's make this summer a season of exhilarating rides, shared camaraderie, and above all, safety. Enjoy the open road, but never underestimate the importance of preparedness.

NATIONAL NEWS

Bikers Inside the Beltway – Your Motorcycle Rights

“Riding where you want, with whom you want, when you want, wearing what you want without government interference.” It is what we wanted 50 years ago when a handful of bikers started State Motorcyclists’ Rights Organizations (SMRO) throughout the country.

Today, that commitment is just as strong with some of the same “old guys” who were younger than thirty back then. However, the attack against motorcycling and motorcyclists’ rights has not gone away.

Witness: Profiling, motorcycle-only roadside “checkpoints,” ethanol 15 (it kills motorcycle engine O-rings), “end of life directives” – coming out of the European Union to get “undesirable” motorcycles off the road, banning the internal combustion engine, need you hear more? The MRF stands strong against legislation such as this.

Now, we are working to protect the aftermarket industry. You can do so too, by answering the Calls to Action on HR 1566 and S 1379; two bills currently in the House of Representatives and U.S. Senate, written to protect the Right to Repair and Modify.

How much do you care about your motorcycle, your right to ride, and the people you ride with? Enough to join the nation’s only full-time (since 1987) motorcyclists’ rights advocacy group fighting for your rights on Capitol Hill?

If “Riding where you want, with whom you want, when you want, wearing what you want without government interference” means anything at all, it means the MRF remains strong in defense of the rights of all motorcyclists, regardless of what they ride. It means that the MRF is in Washington, D.C., standing between those individuals who want to do away with motorcycling and those of us who want to ride forever.

Join the MRF and motorcyclists’ rights activists from state organizations and motorcycle clubs at Bikers Inside the Beltway, May 19-20. Together we will be effective as we visit all 535 Congressional offices to make our message heard clearly.

UPDATE: Autonomous Vehicles NHTSA Changing Rules For Domestic Car Makers

Thursday, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) announced that it is updating rules to allow domestically produced autonomous vehicles to qualify for exemptions from U.S. auto safety standards previously offered only to imports. NHTSA will continue to require car makers and other companies to report crashes involving self-driving systems while loosening some reporting requirements.

NHTSA Chief Counsel Peter Simshauser said of the move that NHTSA is “Actively engaged in developing a multi-faceted regulatory framework for vehicles with automated driving systems.”

It is still too early to know how these changes will impact motorcyclists. However, the move does signal a push by the Trump Administration to remove previous restrictions on self-driving vehicles. For the last decade, the Motorcycle Riders Foundation (MRF) has been raising concerns that this new technology may be unable to recognize and react to motorcyclists. Now more than ever, the MRF will remain vigilant, work with our partners on Capitol Hill and fight to protect the safety of everyone on our national roadways.

RIDE WITH THE LEADERS!

Thousands of motorcyclists' rights activists have attended MRF sponsored annual regional and national workshops since 1985. These workshops provide the nuts and bolts, "user friendly" subjects and training to assist motorcyclists in defending, building, and strengthening their grassroots organizations.

Motorcycle Riders Foundation is proud to present their annual conference for politically motivated motorcyclists! Spend the weekend with some of motorcycling's most educated and dedicated activists. Learn what issues will impact bikers today and in the future!

Use the applications below to join and support the Motorcycle Riders Foundation and to pre-register for the 41st Annual Meeting of the Minds, September 25-28, 2025.
